

be creative with waste

BE CREATIVE WITH WASTE

WIN a trip for your team to a South African National Park and experience the magic of our parks!

How to enter

A team of five to ten learners can express their conservation ethic and talent by using waste to create a sculpture, wall hanging, portrait or any craftwork fitting 50cm in width or 80cm in height creatively demonstrate the link between people and nature through crocheting, weaving, knitting and sewing, waste materials together into a collage. Submit a completed entry form together with your sculpture or craftwork to Morula Kids Competition, SANParks, P.O. Box 787, Pretoria, 0001, or hand them at 643 Leyds Street, Muckleneuk, Pretoria or any of the South African National Parks closest to you by 31 August 2005. Your teacher can supervise your project.

Team members' names:

.....

Name and address of school:

.....

Name of Teacher: Grade:

School Tel: Fax

School's stamp:

Competition Rules

- The competition is open to all Grade 3 to 7 South African learners.
- The school may submit as many entries as possible and only one submission per team.
- The entry form must bear the school's stamp. The project must be done in a team of five to ten learners and the support of the educator may be enlisted
- The competition closes on 31 August 2005.
- The winners will be notified in writing by 19 September 2005.
- All submissions will become the property of South African National Park and may be used for exhibition and /print purposes.
- The prize is not transferable and cannot be converted into cash.
- The judges' decision is final and no correspondence will be entered into.
- Employees of SANParks and their families may not enter.

For more information call Alida Taylor at (012) 426 5140 or visit www.sanparks.org

Calling all learners from Grades 3 to 7